

Grace & Confidence

From the Author

MELISA TORRES

The end of summer always comes with mixed feelings. I am sad to see my kids go back to school, but excited to focus on Perfect Balance Gymnastics Books. I spent the summer editing the new book and it's in its final stages of production. The cover is revealed in this issue, I hope you love it as much as I do! The Comeback is Alexis' story; I loved writing her family and getting to know her better.

Follow us on Facebook (facebook.com/pbgseries), Instagram, or TikTiok (@perfectbalancegymbooks) to see all of our upcoming pictures, videos, and reminders of the new book release.

In this issue, we have two Readers of the Month, important new release dates, and pictures of our adorable new greeting cards.

THE COMEBACK

AVAILABLE OCTOBER 26TH
WITH PRE-ORDERS ON SEPTEMBER 25TH

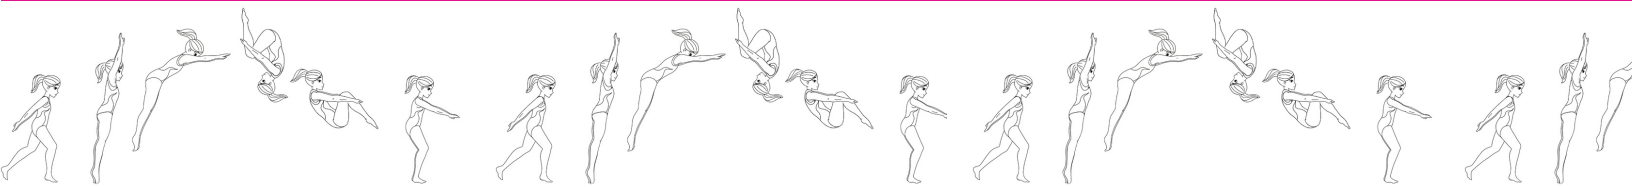

Alexis has a bright Level 7 season ahead. After qualifying for State Championships in her first meet of the season, she is looking forward to upgrading her routines in hopes of making it to Regionals. However, a sudden injury sets her back and derails her big plans. Join twelve-year-old Alexis as she discovers the hard work involved in rehabilitation. She experiences pain, frustration, sadness, and determination. Will this injury take her out for the season or will she be ready in time to compete at State?

SEPTEMBER READER OF THE MONTH, LILY!

Meet Lily! Lily is a Level 5 gymnast who is Training Level 6. She also loves kitty cats, bacon, and playing outside on her trampoline. Her favorite character from the series is James. That's fantastic! Lily is currently reading the Perfect Gymnastics Series for the second time. We love to hear it! Keep up the reading, Lily, you're awesome!

OCTOBER READER OF THE MONTH, ALLIE!

Meet Allie! Allie is a Level 3 gymnast who also likes Ninja Warrior Courses. That's so cool! Allie also has a 2-year-old sister, a 5-year-old brother, and her family lives in Cincinnati, Ohio. Allie's favorite Perfect Balance Gymnastics Book is Nothing Better Than Gym Friends. Her favorite character is Trista. Allie says she loves the series because the characters compete in gymnastics and they support each other. Thank you, Allie, for being our Reader of the Month!
